August 8, 1921 - July 3, 2013

Angie Fitts Marshall

Mrs. Angie Fitts Marshall passed away Wednesday, July 3, 2013 in Americus, Georgia. She was born August 8, 1921 in Dawson, Georgia to Maribel and James Walker Fitts and soon moved to Americus. She was a graduate of the University of Georgia where she was a member of the Phi Mu Sorority. She married Tom Marshall, a young lawyer with whom she had grown up, in 1946 and traveled to New Orleans on her honeymoon to watch the Georgia Bulldogs play in the Sugar Bowl! She devoted herself to raising three daughters, keeping up with a busy husband and participating in community projects. In 1974 Angie and Tom moved to Atlanta where he served on the Georgia Court of Appeals and later the Georgia Supreme Court. While in Atlanta she became a devoted volunteer at the Shepherd Center, putting in many hours at the Center's gift shop. Always blessed with an eye for beauty, she loved to paint and became quite an accomplished artist, taking lessons and painting constantly. Although she was tiny in stature, barely five feet tall, she had a presence about her that commanded respect. Maybe it was the high heels that she never left home without. Blessed with a fun-loving personality, she loved to dance- especially with her 5 grandsons. She was a member of St. John's Anglican Church of Americus and also the Colonial Dames, DAR, Ocean Forest Golf Club, the Capital City Club and the Piedmont Driving Club.

Preceded in death by her husband of 57 years Justice Thomas Oliver Marshall, Jr., she is survived by her three daughters: Mary Marshall, Anne Peagler (George), and Ellen Beard (Duncan). Her six beloved grandchildren are Spence Pryor (Lissa), Charles Pryor (Becky), Oliver Pryor (Katie), Tom Peagler, Sarah Peagler, and Charles Beard (Laurie). Great-grandchildren are Olivia Pryor, Madeleine Pryor, Thomas Pryor, Miller Anne Pryor and Shep Pryor. She is also survived by her sister-in-law Martha Marshall Dykes.

Special thanks to Joyce Watring who was her friend and loving caregiver for seven years. Joyce was a true blessing to her and her entire family.

A graveside service was held in Americus on Friday, July 5. Memorial gifts may be made to St. John's Anglican Church, 411 West Forsyth St., Americus, GA 31709 or the Shepherd Center, 2020 Peachtree Road NW, Atlanta, GA 30309 or the charity of your choice. “ I am the oldest daughter of William Fitts (Angie's brother). Although it has been many years since I have seen the Fitts family in Georgia, i will always cherish the warm memories of Aunt Angie, and Uncle Tom along with the girls girls. The girls were little tykes when I last saw them. One of my memories is of little mary walking around in diapers sucking on a baby bottle filled with coca Cola. I do wish the girls would get in touch me. There is a lot to catch up on. Love and prayers, Cousin Jackie

“ I am so sad to hear of Aunt Angie's death. I have such nice memories of Angie and Tom. They were so kind to me. It is so long since we have heard from my Dad's family. I am the daughter of William Wilson Fitts. He was Angie's oldest brother who died while a captain in the Navy in 1957. My husband Don and I came to Georgia in 1979 and visited in Americus and Atlanta. I hope we can get reconnected. Much love, Maureen

“ Every once in a blue moon a true Southern " Lady" comes into your life. Angie has been that person in our lives. She and her family have welcomed us into their homes and their family. We hold their friendship and love close to our hearts. Our foldest memories of Angie is she dressed to the "nines" in Church and She & Joyce riding by our home and waving on their daily drive. Americus and the State of Georgia is an enriched place because of their quiet generosity and love in helping others.- Reggie & Phyllis Daniel
